Corrections

It was recommended that:

- The Singleness of Purpose description in the pamphlet “A Message to Correctional Professionals,” which currently reads (123-6):

“Some professionals refer to alcoholism and drug addiction as “substance abuse” or “chemical dependency.” Nonalcoholics are, therefore, sometimes introduced to A.A. and encouraged to attend A.A. meetings. Nonalcoholics may attend open A.A. meetings as observers, but only those with a drinking problem may attend closed meetings.”

Be replaced with the following text:

“Some professionals refer to alcoholics and drug addicts as a single group when using professional terminology. Nonalcoholics are, therefore, sometimes introduced to A.A. and encouraged to attend A.A. meetings. Nonalcoholics may attend open A.A. meetings as observers, but attendance at closed meetings is limited to persons who have a desire to stop drinking.”

- The video “Carrying the Message Behind the Walls” be discontinued. (121-10)
- A pamphlet on the transgender alcoholic in A.A. be developed. The committee requested that a draft pamphlet or progress report be brought back to the 2025 Conference Committee on Corrections. (86-40)

Finance

It was recommended that:

- The following change to the language in the pamphlet “Self-Support: Where Money and Spirituality Mix” be implemented (115-4):

At the bottom of page 9 where it currently reads:

Q: Who manages GSO’s share of your group contributions?

A: The General Service Board’s Finance Committee meets quarterly to review and approve GSO’s budget and the audited financial accounts.

The A.A. World Services Board meets monthly and maintains direct control of income and expenditures. The annual General Service Conference reviews A.A.’s finances through its own Finance Committee. A.A.’s financial affairs are an “open” book. A summary is published in each Quarterly Report and a full accounting is in the Final Conference Report. The account books themselves are available at the General Service Office for scrutiny at any time.

Be revised to read:

Q: Who manages GSB's share of your group contributions?

A: The General Service Board's Finance Committee meets quarterly to review and approve the financial reports of all three corporations. In addition, the committee reviews and approves the budgets two times per year.

The A.A. World Services Board meets regularly and maintains direct control of income and expenditure. The annual General Service Conference reviews A.A.'s finances through its own Finance Committee. A.A.'s financial affairs are an "open" book. A summary is published in each Quarterly Report and a full accounting is in the Final Conference Report. These reports themselves are available at aa.org and at the General Service Office for review at any time.

- The maximum annual contribution from an individual A.A. member to the General Service Board be increased from $5,000 to $7,500. (95-28)

Grapevine

It was recommended that:

- The AA Grapevine Board develop a 5-year financial plan for La Viña with the goal to reduce shortfalls and increase revenue to be brought back to the 2025 Conference Committee on Grapevine and La Viña. (108-18)

Literature

It was recommended that:

- The pamphlets "It Happened to Alice" (P-39) and "What Happened to Joe" (P-38) be retired. (114-11)
- The draft of the revised pamphlet "A.A. for the Black and African American Alcoholic" (retitled "Black in A.A.: Experience, Strength and Hope") be approved with the following minor editorial changes (121-3):
